

CAMILLE HARRIS

Featured in:

VICE

The New York Times

BROKELYN

CAMILLE HARRIS is a singer, pianist, composer, performer, producer, mixing engineer and playwright born in Boulder, CO and based in Brooklyn, NY. She has released 5 albums under her name and performs regularly with her self titled band and her children's band, The Silly Jazz Band. She recently completed her Master of Arts in Creative Media and Technology at BerkleeNYC specializing in Songwriting and Production. Her compositions and mixes have been featured on projects and commercials for clients such as Nickelodeon, Adobe, Merrill Lynch, and more.

LATEST RELEASE

Camille has performed at a diverse array of notable performance spaces in New York including, The Whitney Museum, The Dramatists Guild Foundation, The Bruno Walter Auditorium at the New York Library for the Performing Arts at Lincoln Center and The New Dramatists and The Center for Ballet and the Arts at NYU.

She is a vocalist on the Grammy Award Winning Children's Album, Home, by Tim Kubart. Her own critically acclaimed children's album, Baby on the Subway, won both the Parents' Choice Awards and the Tillywig Toy Awards and its title track was featured in IFC/College Humor's Comedy Music Hall of Fame.

Her music has more than 1.6 million streams on Spotify.

@camilleharrismusic